Affected Rights

You have the right to receive information about the origin, recipient and purpose of your stored personal data at any time, if these are collected. You also have the right to correct, block, object to the processing of your data, restrict data processing (if we are not yet allowed to delete your data due to legal obligations), right to data portability or the deletion of this data. If you have given us your consent, you can revoke it at any time with effect for the future. You can contact the supervisory authority responsible for you at any time with a complaint: <https://www.bfdi.bund.de>

Changes to our data protection regulations

We reserve the right to adapt this data protection declaration if necessary (e.g. in the event of legal changes or to expand our offers). The data protection declaration currently published here applies to your next visit.

Questions to the data protection officer

If you have any questions about data protection, please contact us at the contact address given above.

Server log files

When you access our website, your internet browser automatically transmits data to our web server for technical reasons. In this context, the date and time of access, the URL of the referring website, the requested file, the amount of data transferred, the browser type and version, the operating system of the accessing computer and its IP address are recorded. The data transmitted for technical reasons are evaluated, stored and then deleted for statistical purposes only. An assignment of this data to a specific person is not possible for us and does not take place.

Contact form / registration (if available)

If you register via our website or send us inquiries using the contact form, your details from these forms will be stored and processed for processing purposes and for possible follow-up questions. Your data will not be passed on to third parties. For security reasons and to protect the transmission of confidential content, our site uses SSL encryption over HTTPS. In order to provide any chargeable services, we ask for additional data, such as Payment details to process your order. We store this data in our systems until the statutory retention periods have expired.

Cookies

We do not use our own cookies on our website. Only third-party cookies are used. (e.g. through Google products). Cookies are small text files that are stored on your hard drive in the browser you are using. In general, you can deactivate / edit the use of cookies at any time via the settings of your browser. You can always use your browser to determine whether and, if so, which cookies are being saved.

Integration of Google web fonts

Our site uses web fonts provided by Google to display fonts. For this purpose, the browser you are using must connect to the Google servers. This gives Google knowledge that our website has been accessed via your IP address. You can find more information about Google Web Fonts at <https://developers.google.com/fonts/faq> and in Google's data protection declaration: <https://www.google.com/policies/privacy/>.

Integration of videos

If we include videos on our website, we use the video plugins from Vimeo or Youtube (hereinafter referred to as providers). If you visit one of our pages equipped with a video plug-in, a connection to the provider's servers will be established. Information about the visited page and your IP address are transmitted to the provider. This also applies if you are not logged in to Vimeo or Youtube or do not have an account with the provider. If you are logged into your Vimeo or Youtube account, you enable the provider to assign your surfing behavior directly to your personal profile. You can prevent this by logging out of your account.
